GREAT BRITAIN'S UGLY SCANDAL.

Startling Disclosures Promised in the Transvaal Case.

THE GREED FOR GOLD.

Krueger Has Some Cryptograms on File That Will Shame the People of England.

LONDON, May 6.—The report that Cecil Rhodes and Alfred Beit had resigned their posts as directors of the British Chartered South Africa Co. is confirmed. The Board of Directors of that organization is now considering the situation.

Truth says it is creditably informed that President Krueger possesses evidence at the moment of Dr. Jameson's march upon Pretoria, to seize President Krueger, and then to proceed to Johannesburg with the President a prisoner. In an editorial, Truth says that the men who entered terms upon the Jameson raid, it says:

"The main object of the raid was to annex the rich mining district of the Transvaal to Rhodesia. It is obvious that the first news of this raid would cause a fall in shares. In fact, price quotations show that a fall was formed just prior to the raid, including a leading Director in one of the chief offices of the British Chartered South Africa Co., for the purpose of causing large sales. The seed having thus been sown for securing a profit by the immediate fall in the price of shares, the raid was a success and a rich slice of the Transvaal had been added to charter land, steps were taken to carry out the conspiracy."

"The tenor of the cryptograms shows that there was a divergence of opinion between the Rhodes (Cecil Rhodes and Sir Francis Rhodes), and Alfred Beit's representatives among the reformers, and that those not in the government were responsible for the failure of the scheme."

"The telegrams are damaging alike to the Chartered Company and to Mr. Rhodes. It is known that the plan was hatched by Cecil Rhodes, Alfred Beit and the Secretary of the Chartered South Africa Co. The telegram from Hammond to Rhodes saying, 'Cannot agree to receive you in Rhodesia' shows that the aim was purely for a stock exchange deal. These miscreants, that is to say, a race which would have led to the death of many, and which was based on robbery, were actually already disclosed to the respective masters of the plan."

The article then proceeds to severely attack Cecil Rhodes, comparing him to Jabez Balfour, the first man to apply to imperial politics the methods of the shady company promoter."

The article ends its attack as follows:

"Had Cecil Rhodes remained in France or Cape Colony I am convinced that as soon as it suited his purpose he would have turned to the Government (that is, the Government) and sought to cut the chain which binds him to the South African Government."

The Imperial Government still maintains rigid silence concerning its action in regard to Cecil Rhodes in view of the disclosure of the cipher telegrams, but the facts of Rhodes' conduct are well known.

Before leaving England for Rhodesia, Cecil Rhodes, in anticipation of the revelations of the cipher telegrams, "which he knew would fail to meet the eyes of the public," left his resignation as managing director of the United States with Mr. Hawksley, which may lay the cable to pay a subsidy not exceeding $1,000 per year. The bill had been introduced into the Senate by one of the Republican members of the committee. The other Democratic Senators, Messrs. Gray, Turpie, Daniel and Mills, opposed the bill.

MORE CUBAN MURDERS.

Twenty Families Put to Death by Order of Gen. Garrick.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Letters from Cuba say that in Santiago recently Gen. Garrick of the Spanish forces ordered all the inhabitants of the city to give up their possessions and move into the city on pain of death.

When about twenty families refused to obey, he put them—men, women and children—to death and burned their dwellings.

BACK TO BOERLAND.

Mr. Jewell Takes a Petition for Hammon's Pardon.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The Herald this morning says: "A couple of weeks ago Fletcher Webster Jewell of Johannesburg, South Africa, arrived in New York with his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes, Americans who have been some years in South Africa. Mr. Jewell has made a great deal of money out there in consequence of Dr. Jameson's raid, a close friend of John Hayes Hammond, who is now writing to the president to call for South Africa with a petition signed by members of Congress for the pardon of Mr. Jewell."

Mr. Jewell is the only Uitlander on the side of the Boers. He refused to have anything to do with the projected uprising.

Englishmen and Americans had nothing to complain of," said Mr. Jewell, "for every man had made plenty of money out there, which proves that the Boer Government was not tyrannical."

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., May 6.—The 2d. o. of the Fourth Congressional District has been full force and effect with their war paint on. There are five faithful patriots who are willing to be offered on the sacrificial altar in November, viz.: Moses of Stoddard, County Auditor; Burkhart of Cass, Girardeau; head of Douglas and Barnes of New Madrid.

The convention was called to order at 10:30 this morning and Mr. S. Chapman of this city was introduced. He delivered an address of welcome. At 11:30 Mr. Chapman was named permanent chairman for five minutes. Mr. Chapman also supported B. B. Cahoon for Governor.

Interest was deadlocked in the lead and Burkhardt a strong third.

Mr. W. A. Lowd of Ozark County was chosen to speak for the Committee on Credentials. Order of Business was adjourned. All these committees were named the convention adjourned until 1 o'clock.

REPUBLICS UNITE.

Nicaragua, San Salvador and Honduras Join Hands.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The Herald's correspondent in Salvador wires that Congress has approved the treaty of Amatapu, which unites the republics of San Salvador, Nicaragua and Honduras, which will henceforth be called by the name Republica Mayor de Centro America.

The Congress has also appointed as delegates to Salvador to the Central American Conference, Dr. Jacobo Castañeda, President, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and a well-known statesman.

Good Fortune of Charles Vogel, a Laborer in Connecticut.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., May 6.—Charles Vogel, a laborer, received word-to-day from the Mayor of Lyons, France, that he had fallen heir to $1,000,000 by the death of his uncle.

When the news of his good fortune was told to him he about to complete arrangements to marry the girl he loves. After the marriage they will go to France to attend to the settlement of the estate. Vogel will return with his fortune and settle down in this city.

HAWAIIAN CABLE.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee Agrees to a Subsidy.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations to-day agreed to a compromise bill for a cable to Hawaii and Japan. The bill authorizes the Post-Office to make a cable to any company which may lay the cable to pay a subsidy not exceeding $1,000,000 per year. The bill had been introduced into the Senate by Dr. Cecil Rhodes, comparing him to Jabez Balfour, the first man to apply to imperial politics the methods of the shady company promoter."

The bill reads as follows:

"Had Cecil Rhodes remained in France or Cape Colony I am convinced that as soon as it suited his purpose he would have turned to the Government (that is, the Government) and sought to cut the chain which binds him to the South African Government."

"Who will the other three delegates be?"
"Wait till you get to St. Joe and see. F. G. Niedringhaus will be one of them. That's the answer. We have made up our representation of this city in the National Convention, and it seems entirely agreeable to the fellows out in the country."

"But at the dinner you gave the members of the sub-committee of the National Committee on their first visit, didn't you name me as one of the large?"

"Yes, I did; but events have transpired since then which necessitated a change of the program. On Saturday you spent all day with myself, Niedringhaus, Bothwell and Bittinger as Missouri's big four to the National Convention. But Bittinger has been declining his offer. Koenig must largely and I guess he can look after himself with what aid his friend Koenig can give him."

"Then you, Niedringhaus, and myself will take the place of the big four, and you are looking around for a substitute for Col. Bittinger."

"It was so fast—not so fast! I told you that it was all fixed for Niedringhaus and myself, and that's all I did tell you. As to the rest of it, I will not tell you to St. Joe."

"But Mr. Fillery, don't you say that a number of districts and numerous counties have gone against you and that you are to be again 'eliminated' at St. Joseph next week?"

"'De Ole Man' sat almost upright in bed. He looked first at Koenig, then at Nowell and then at Kalbfleisch. Then he smiled and glared at the reporter. After a peal of laughter that was not preceded or accompanied by a smile on the stern face, Uncle Filley said:

"Let them claim what they want and lie all they please. I am impervious to all such."

"They said, too, that I was fighting McKinley, didn't they? Well, you heard me right, extract from letters from McKinley and Hanna at the Twin City Convention yesterday, didn't you? Those letters don't sound like me, am not in it, do they? And I am not in it, either. I am not in it. McKinley this morning. It was written yesterday. And wouldn't you like to see it?"

"The McKinley Committee, Raney says, the Thirteenth District will instruct against you?"

"Oh, does he? Well, in the same interview isn't Raney quoted as saying that he is not a candidate for renomination? I guess he has got tired and wants to quit. Let him go with the tail of all them. They get tired and quit."

"The Thirteenth District will be all right and we send a good delegation to Congress next month. The majority of the congressional material down there, so there is no use for you to ask me who will be nominated to succeed Raney."

"By the way," Uncle Filley suggested, "after a talk in the conversation, see if McKinley doesn't have some kind of Koenig and such message to McKinley as that which Koenig told the Post-Dispatch Monday night. I bore it in mind to tell him to the best of my knowledge Koenig will now deny that he told it to the Post-Dispatch. That's next in order, and would be just like him. He has been interviewing me about the treachery to McKinley around Republican newspaper offices for two weeks before he finally got published a Democratic paper."

At this point Col. Brownell could repress his indignation no longer.

"I took him to the Colonel blurted, 'don't you know that Ned Fillery was originally Tom Reed boomer? Well, if you don't, I tell you now that he was. Why, when we were in the campaign to get the McKinley Convention he talked nobody but Reed and told me the nomination of McKinley would be suicidal. Like all the rest of them, he sees the wrongs of the South and is trying to get into the band wagon.'

"What are the boites going to do at their mass meeting Saturday afternoon?" the reporter asked City Chairman Kalbfleisch.

"Oh, blanked I know," was the laconic reply.

"Of course we could. But what's the use to bother about these soreheads? They don't represent anything or anybody, and we would better pay no attention to them. They can't do us any harm, and they will think we are being very nice to give them."

Consequently Uncle Filley went to show the boites the results of the letter he has received from McKinley and Mark Hanna, to which he referred in his speech at the Twin City Convention. The reporter was permitted to copy these paragraphs.

"Things are moving along encouragingly. Be assured I appreciate your labor and loyalty. I hope I may keep you soon. With sincere regards, W. M. MCKINLEY."

"Oh, and things have changed in the political world since I saw you at Chicago that I turn to you for counsel and advice, but you are closest to me now that I could be. I am daily more anxious for you, and I will be more than obliged if you will write me as often as you have any suggestions to make. Succes to you."

"M. A. HANNA."

"I would let you copy both letters completely, but for the fact that they are, as you see, now marked personal," said Uncle Filley in conclusion.

WATCHING WALBRIDGE.

"Upon Wants to Get a Line on His Prospects."

Judge J. R. Upton of Polk County, for whom a number of counties in Southeast Missouri have already instructed for the Republican Gubernatorial nomination, is in the city. Judge Upton used to be an ardent anti-Fillery, but for the last year or two he has been a decided convert to "De Ole Man," and visits the Mosque like all the rest of the faithful nearly every time he comes to St. Louis.

Judge Upton is quoted by a friend as declaring that the St. Joseph Convention is likely not to be the Fillery love fest that is expected under "De Ole Man." The country delegates the rights that are theirs.

The three big cities, St. Louis, Kansas City, and St. Joseph, control less than one-third of the delegates, Judge Upton points out, and should not, therefore, insist on "hogging" everything at St. Joseph and again at Springfield.

Judge Upton was seen at the Lacoste Hotel, where he is staying, and asked about Mr. Filley's status as candidate for delegate at large for the Convention, and the strength of the opposition to "De Ole Man."

Judge Upton said:

"Why, he said, 'I don't know anything about that. There is no opposition to Mr. Filley, and I am sure they are trying to prevent his nomination as delegate at large.'

He was asked whether he thought Mr. Koenig was trying to beat Mr. Filley out of the place:

"So far as I know, Mr. Koenig has many friends in the State."

The Judge seemed very anxious to get a line on Walbridge street in St. Louis, and it is believed that he is simply here to size up the Walbridge boom.

"Of course, he said, 'I am told that it is all arranged that I am to be nominated and elected Governor at the coming election. It is all fixed, and my election is as certain as anything can be in politics.'

WILL RAISE A RELIGIOUS HOWL.

The Proposition to Tax Church Property Is Resurrected.

CATHOLICS WILL RESIST IT.

Memorial to the Legislature Passes House of Delegates With Only One Dissenting Vote.

The old fight to tax church property has begun over again in this city by the introduction of a resolution in the House of Delegates requesting a constitutional amendment which shall attain this end.

The resolution does not put it quite so plainly, but this is its object and it is patent upon the face of it. There was but one dissenting vote to the resolution, but this was because its import was not clearly understood.

Delegat Sullivan was the only member who did not pay attention to understand the purpose of the measure and he voted nay. The rest of the body either voted no or failed to vote.

Mr. Sullivan is a Catholic and he based his opposition to the resolution on the ground that it is an attack on the Roman Catholic Church organization.

The organization has always fought similar movements in other States. While there is no discrimination, all denominations being affected alike, the wealth of the Catholic Church makes them the greatest sufferers.

Hence they have persistently opposed it heretofore and presumably will do so in this instance.

The resolution in full is as follows:

Whereas, The Constitution of Missouri exempts certain private property from taxation; and,

Whereas, the exemption of such constitutes private property, not legally exempt, of the public property of the State of Missouri; and,

Whereas, The exemption of such necessarily entails an unjust disproportion of the tax burden upon those who pay taxes; and,

Whereas, The taxation of private property in the city of St. Louis would add large sums of money to the revenues of the city and of the State; and,

Whereas, The public institutions of this city are now taxed and meet the ever-increasing demands upon them, while the same may be supplied by the taxation of private property at present.

Resolved, By the Missouri Assembly of St. Louis that the next General Assembly of the State of Missouri, hereafter requested to submit to the qualified voters of the State, in the succeeding general election, a constitutional amendment as follows:

That all private property in the State of Missouri, without regard to the purpose for which it is used, shall be taxed equally according to value.

It was introduced by request of Delegate F. Taubold under the caption,

A Joint and concurrent resolution, a memorial of the House of Delegates of St. Louis to the General Assembly of Mo-sса on the subject of taxation.

The style of the resolution is what led to practically no opposition.

BUS' LAME DEFENSE.

As the Post-Dispatch predicted on the eve following Bus' precipitate resignation, he has a six-month job again.

Again, Bus' in the Supreme for holding two offices at the same time, the revolutionist and lawbreaker who has usurped a place on the School Board for the last fifteen months without the shadow of legal right, resigned the position of Deputy Sheriff, in order to be able to make the defense that he is only occupying one office and therefore is not amenable to the law against holding two.

The prediction was verified by the plea made by Bus in the Supreme Court Tuesday.

This should not avail him. Fifteen months ago, while a school director, he was appointed deputy sheriff, a position of pay and emolument under the statutes. He continued to hold both offices until frightened into resigning one of them, with most salary but least prestige.

In accepting the second office he by no means vacated the first. He ought not to be allowed by a belated resolution to take advantage of his own wrong. And the Supreme Court will probably rule.

THE CAT OUT OF THE BAG.

The President of one of the local street railroad companies is quoted by the Globe-Democrat as saying, in reference to the post-office railway cars carrying the sign "U. S. Mail."

In case of a strike, interference with the movement of the car by strikers will bring out United States regulars or deputy marshals. Lastly, the employees would hesitate about inaugurating a strike or would not strike at all. To put it plainly, they would be afraid to strike for trivial causes. This mannered mail line would work a benefit to the men as well as the company.

Other representatives of the street railroads are quoted as saying that the rates of compensation fixed by the post-office authorities at Washington are so low that there is no profit in transporting mail matter over the street railroads. The chief advantage to the companies, as frankly admitted by the President quoted above, is that in case of a strike "either United States regulars or deputy marshals" could be called upon to assist the companies in defeating the strike.

This is precisely what the Post-Dispatch charged. It is a scheme to secure federal interference in matters which are wholly within the scope of State and authority.

THE BOSS'S GAME OF BLUFF.

The bold front shown by the Republicans in face of the odds against them, considering the aims and purposes of these political pirates, more consonant of the desperate hopelessness than frank acknowledgment of defeat would be. With more than half the delegates instructed against them, Quay, Platt, Clarkson & Co. declare they will still fight on and go down, if sink them they must, with their flag flying.

This is mere bravado. They are not fighting for victory, but for quarter. Their hope is to force McKinley, by threats of buying Southern delegates, using the hostile majority of the National Committee to organize the convention, by seating contesting delegations that are for other candidates, and even by declaring they will exert a neutral influence in several of the larger States, so that these will go against him in the general election, to promote them the distribution of patronage and not to interfere with the political machines they control in their respective States.

If McKinley and his managers allow this bluff to succeed they will lose the fruits of the victory the Republicans have placed in their hands. McKinley has the bosses on the run and the people want them kept going till they are thrust out of politics altogether.

SILVER VICTORY AT CHICAGO.

The relative strength of the free coinage and gold standard factions in Chicago was shown yesterday at the meeting of the Cook County Democratic Central Committee to decide on the kind of primaries to be held for electing delegates to the State convention at Peoria. The silver men polled 74 votes and the gold men 47. As the members of the Central Committee were chosen from the various wards of the city and from the country towns during the period of hot contention in Chicago over the double and single standards, they are fairly representative of the sentiment of the constituencies that elected them on the currency question.

Judge Moran's proposition that the single standard men would pay all the expenses if the committee would order the primaries held under the Crawford law—a Republican measure framed in the interest of machine methods—was a brazen exhibition of the methods of the Illinois Shermantons and an insulting estimate of the morality they attribute to the advocates of honest money. The scorn and contempt with which Judge McConnell and others hurled back the offer of the attorney of the Whisky Trust bondholders and the overwhelming vote by which Moran's proposition was rejected served notice on the Cleveland crowd of corporation lawyers and Federal officeholders that the honest Democrats of Chicago and Cook County can neither be tricked nor bribed out of the majority vote they will cast for free silver at the primaries.

Outside of Cook County the free coinage Democrats have Illinois safe already. It is an easy guess where the action of the City Central Committee that they will have Chicago safe when the primaries are held.

FRAUDULENT BENEFIT SOCIETIES.

The twenty-seventh annual report of the State Insurance Department shows that insurance in Missouri, both of life and property, is in a satisfactory condition, except where it is most needed, namely, among the poor.

The Superintendent of the Insurance Department calls attention to the fact that citizens of Missouri, chiefly poor people, are being swindled by organizations pretending to be benevolent associations, but whose promoters and managers "know not what the word benevolence means; whose purposes are as vicious as those of a pirate; who have no assets nor legal responsibility, and who are preying upon innocence and ignorance day by day and week by week, inflicting the crudest injury and damage upon those of our citizens who are least able to bear it."

These cormorants, who have for years been un molested, take false and alluring titles, "proclaiming benevolence in their articles of association and breathing fraternalism in their declarations," and strange to say—because of such false and deceiving articles of association and declarations are exempt from the operations of the statute providing for State insurance and control.

As Sup't. Waddill points out, the insurance law should be so amended that all associations having the element of insurance in their purpose and object should be placed under the control of the State Government. There should be no exemption. Only proper investigation and licensing can guard the people against this species of fraud, the victims of which are unable to defend themselves from those who prey upon them.

MORE DOMESTIC HEARTBURNINGS.

From the St. Joseph (Mo.) News.

The ladies are wearing men's "turn-down" collars this year, and hostilities between married couples over who shall wear the new necktie have been resumed.

Mr. Carlisle did not vote for Bradley.

His idea was merely to get others to vote for the Republican candidate.

If the Cuban horses are nearly extinct there ought soon to be a great opening in the Isle for a bicycle depot.

The Missouri Democrats have stood up for Missouri and Missouri will stand up for the Missouri Democrats.

The Bus School Board-faction has got itself into contention both in and out of court.

ANOTHER DIFFICULTY.

From the Washington Post.

The bicycle scorchers cannot be captured by mounted policemen unless they are mounted on bicycles and understand the art of scorching.

THE GREAT FREE SILVER PAPER.

From the Fayetteville (Ark.) Sentinel.

The Post-Dispatch, the great free silver paper of the West, will issue a weekly edition commanding May 14 for 50 cents a year—25 cents for the campaign or until Dec. 1. At this rate it ought to have 50,000 readers in Arkansas alone.

WE SHALL MEET AT THE WIRE.

From the New York Journal.

No student of electrical science now doubts that perhaps the next most important step will be the discovery of the means of actually seeing by wire. It is within the range of possibility that when the next electrical exhibition is held it will be possible not only to talk quietly with our friends in San Francisco, but to see them at the same time.

COLLIS'S COMMITTEE.

From the New York Journal.

Huntington being unable to pay his debts to day, Gear and his committee would extend them at reduced interest on security which they now declare worthless. Intelligent gear! Why Huntington! Helpless people of the United States, who must pay the freight in more ways than one.

BICYCLE CAUTION.

From the New York Recorder.

I wish our bicycle friends could be induced to study caution and precaution. It is so natural for a man with a speedy horse to speed him, so likely that a brewer's wagon driver should be asleep, that really cyclists ought to understand that the burden of forethought is on them. Two people were yesterday killed, both full of pluck and life and spirit, cycling with speed and earnest purpose. One ran into a brewer's wagon and one into a trolley car.

ARE SKY-SCRAPERS GOING OUT?

From the Chicago Record.

It is significant that both in New York and in Chicago ornamental two-story office buildings have been planned recently, in spite of the fact that a consideration for mere profits would have advised the erection of office towers of the customary height.

THE JURY PATRIOT.

O. hard is the wood where the juryman sits.

In the court where he waits to be called? Twixt the tax on his flesh and the tax on his wife?

Missouri has the greatest confidence in her delegation to Chicago. There is no belief anywhere in the State that any representative of the Imperial commonwealth will be. With more than half the delegates instructed against them, Quay, Platt, Clarkson & Co. declare they will still fight on and go down, if sink them they must, with their flag flying.

This is mere bravado. They are not fighting for victory, but for quarter.

Their hope is to force McKinley, by wealth will debase himself by treachery of any sort.

Windsor Way, that affords a passage from Windsor place to Flinney avenue, has proved a great convenience. It ought to run through to Vandeventer place. All the too long blocks should have Windsor Ways.

Now that the Republican Presidential nomination about settled, there will be a scramble for second place. Tom Reed would perhaps take it had he not an unconquerable aversion to kangaroo tickets.

St. Louis is happy in many things and not least in possessing so prosperous a newspaper and excellent advertising medium as the Post-Dispatch. It is well to drop it and con its books for a time.

The ghastly hysterical laughter heard in the rigging of a schooner at New Haven may be the expression of some nautical spooks over Navy Paymaster Tom Reed's race for the nomination.

Perhaps Alton Filley has decided to take strawberry short cake in place of pie. The diet of a reformer must be varied occasionally as well as that of the most depraved politician.

Li Hung Chang waits a higher tariff for China. The sad consequences of the Japanese invasion are making themselves felt in the Flower Kingdom in many ways.

Two women, each with a double team, were seen plowing in Pennsylvania the other day. Doubtless their husbands were off "whooping it up" for Matt Quay.

Delegates and visitors to the great convention will be allowed the freedom of the grass, but, in some parts of the city, mint may come a little higher.

From the result of Jameson's raid it is evident that Sir Hercules Robinson did not lend the classic terror of his name to the ill-starred movement.

If Tom Reed should attempt to cling to the McKinley wagon, there will be members of his own party mean enough to cry "Lick behind!"

Gov. Morton's touch, that discharged cannon in five cities, including great London itself, is strange to say, ineffectual for his own good.

The good work of the Boers is an indication of what may be done by sturdy farmers. United they are a great power in war or politics.

In mentioning Mr. Bull's malevolence and selfish objects, President Krueger deserves considerable acquaintance with foreign affairs.

There is a widespread belief among the Boers that President Krueger is a sort of saint or prophet, occupying a place different from and higher than that of ordinary men. This feeling is said to explain, in a measure, Krueger's control of the Transvaal Parliament.

Antonio de Navarro, husband of Mary Anderson, has an interesting collection of photographs of his wife in a room in their home at Tunbridge Wells. They represent her in all the parts she has played, and Mr. de Navarro has arranged them to make a frieze around the entire room.

THE J. L. HUDSON COMPANY

$100,000.00 CREDITORS' SALE!

Forced to Make an Immediate Sacrifice of Our Great $250,000 Stock to Satisfy Creditors!

From the Globe-Democrat, Sunday, May 2, 1895.
DETROIT CLOTHIERS EMBARRASSED.
J. L. Hudson & Co. ask for an Extension of Credit.

DETROIT, Mich., May 1.—J. L. Hudson & Co., clothiers, this morning notified all their creditors that the company is financially embarrassed and desires an extension of credits.

The company has branch houses in San Francisco, St. Paul, Cleveland, St. Louis, Buffalo and Grand Rapids. A statement is issued by the company giving assets at $1,271,840, liabilities $518,154.00.

The immediate cause of the request for an extension was the failure of a large Eastern house and the firm's inability to borrow money in the open market.

Mr. J. L. Hudson, President of our company and owner of the majority of our stock, has been compelled, with assets of $1,271,840.00, liabilities $518,154.00, to ask an extension of credit! Meanwhile—to pay pressing claims—he has ordered us to make a peremptory sweeping sacrifice of our great new Quarter Million Stock of Spring and Summer Goods until $100,000 has been sold! In obedience to this order we have started a money-raising sale the like of which has never been known before in this or any other city!

Every Price on Every Article in Every Department

NEW STREET SIGNS.

The First Installment Will Soon Be Put Up.

The first shipment of street signs from Liverpool, England, will arrive in St. Louis Friday next, and the work of erecting them be pushed ahead as fast as possible. The signs cost 36¢ cents apiece, and are the best, in the opinion of the Board of Public Improvements, that could be obtained.

When the project was first exploited there were probably 200 different samples of signs submitted to the board for examination. They were all torn, broken, and hammered and soaked to find out which were the best. Finally the blue enamel sighs, with white enamel letters, were selected as the best of all submitted.

Specimens were drawn up and bids asked for $100 signs to be set up in thirty days. The signs to be four and one-half inches wide and from sixteen to twenty-four inches long, the length of the words to be printed on them.

There were three bidders—F. E. Marland, who got $4.60; 38 cents apiece; the Bell and Stetson Co., $4.50; and Geo. W. Jeffords, who got the contract, $2.25, or 36¢ cents apiece. The samples received so far are all satisfactory.

ACTED LIKE SHYLOCK.

Heartless Action of an Undertaker at a Bereaved House.

Frédéric Moehlenbach, an undertaker, was fined $10 in the Second District Police Court Wednesday for robbing the poor.

Marie and Lizzie Krueger, a young married couple, were the plaintiffs. When their baby died they called on Frédéric Moehlenbach to conduct the funeral. His furnished a casket and was paid $10.

On the day of the funeral, according to Kruegers and other witnesses, Moehlenbach went to the home of the bereaved parents and threatened to take the coffin away with him if it was not paid. Tears and hysterics followed, and not until the neighborhood was aroused did the undertaker ashamed into desisting from his demand and proceeding with the funeral.

A REMARKABLE OPPORTUNITY.

The Great Money-Raising Sale of the J. L. Hudson Company.

The financial embarrassment of Mr. J. L. Hudson, President and owner of a majority of stock in the J. L. Hudson Company, has made necessary a sweeping sacrifice sale of the entire stocks of fresh, new spring goods belonging to that firm. Stylish new Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishing Goods, Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes, Shirt Waists, Suit Skirts, Mufflers, Gloves, Stockings, etc., are also the great basement stock of Crochet, Lace and Gas Fixtures, Electric Braces, Pictures and House Furnishings are all being sold at tremendous discounts from retail price.

The marvelous bargains reported in the advertisement elsewhere in this paper show the earnestness of the company's purpose to do away with the deadwood in its organization, and thus avert a financial crisis.

The slaughter of prices is general, every article in the store being reduced, and the offer is a much-needed opportunity for substantial money saving which will be eagerly taken advantage of by all intelligent people. The best and most simple and gentle remedy is the Syrup of Fig, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Company.

Two Men Would Need to Protect One Woman Guard.

The ladies of the Humanity Club had an interview with Supt. Carr of the Work-house Wednesday morning on the subject of a female guard at the Work-house to take charge of the female prisoners.

The Superintendent is opposed to female guards at his institution and is opposing the scheme in every way he can. He says that it would take two extra male guards to take care of one female guard.

Equal Suffrage Club Meets and Elects Officers.

The first anniversary of the St. Louis Equal Suffrage Club was held at the Central Christian Church Tuesday evening. When the club was organized a year ago it had a State membership of forty-three members. During the year it has been more trebled.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Victoria C. Wilcox, president; Dr. H. Taylor Wilcox, vice-president; Miss Ella Bullock, corresponding secretary; Maj. J. H. Morwin, recording secretary; Mrs. Reavis, treasurer; Mrs. Mary R. Gandy, auditor. Maj. Morwin was appointed delegate to the State Prohibition Convention at Sedalia. He will represent the St. Louis Equal Suffrage Club in the national convention to be held in October.

MUNYON'S REMEDIES CURE CATARRH AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES.

Catarrh Leads to Indigestion, Insomnia, Nervous Disorders, Consumption and Many Other Diseases.—Munyon Positively Cures by His New Method.

Catarrh, itself an unpleasant disease, is an insidious foe and leads to other very serious diseases, such as consumption, etc., if it is not treated to the stomach and affect the digestive organs, causing dyspepsia, which makes life a burden. Weakness, debility, insomnia and even insanity have followed. Catarrh neglected also reaches the lungs and ends in consumption and death. Discharge from the Nose and Throat, Bad Breath, Stuffed-Up Nostrils and Head, Pressure and Sharp Pain in the Head, Dull Head, Headaches, Earache, Indigestion, Watery Eyes, Itching in the Skin, Cold, Tangled hair falling in the Head, Nausea, Deafness and Hawking and Spitting of Mucus, are some of the symptoms of catarrh.

Are you a sufferer with catarrh? Have you taken all sorts of drugs and patent nostrums? Are you tired of paying big doctor bills without being cured? Are you willing to spend a cent more to be cured? If you are suffering with catarrh by removing the cause of the disease? If you ask your druggist for a 25-cent bottle of Munyon's Cure and a 25-cent bottle of Catarrh Tablets. The Catarrh Cure will eradicate the disease from the system, and the Tablets will cleanse and heal afflicted parts and restore them to a natural and healthful condition.

A Specific for Each Disease.

Prof. Munyon puts up a separate remedy for every disease. His Rheumatism Cure cures rheumatism in from one to three hours and costs only 25 cents. His Dyspepsia Cure specifically cures all forms of stomach trouble. His Cold Care never fails to cure the most severe cold in a few hours. The Munyon Remedies are sold at all drugstores, mostly at 25 cents a bottle.

Personal letters to Prof. Munyon, 1805 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

JOHNSON OUGHT TO STUDY.

That's What Judge Murphy Says of the Prosecuting Attorney.

Judge Murphy has discovered that the form of information on which warrants for assault and battery are made out is defective. His Honor was assisted in making the discovery by the attorney for the prisoner on trial.

It is the same form that has been in use in the St. Louis Criminal Court for over thirty years since the establishment of the Court of Criminal Correction.

But the peculiar thing about the form is that it is not signed by the attorney for the one who had been discharged and was out of the court-room; then it was found to be correct.

The inaccuracy was the way in which the attorney for the defense twisted it while reading it to the Court. Judge Murphy did not believe that had he known information was wanting, and the prisoner discharged.

April 30 Ernest Tatum swore to a warrant that he had been assaulted with assault and battery. On April 12 Donnelly, with whom he was compelled to get out of bed, was nearly three weeks from the besting administered.

Grant was made out by Col. Johnson on the same form that had been used in for over thirty years, was unable to answer then carefully to make sure it was correct.

Since the warrant was issued fully fifty prominent persons have called on Col. Johnson and requested him to withdraw it. Several city officials interceded with the Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, but it was no use.

Attorney William Fitzgerald represented Donnelly, who was tried and was called for a hearing yesterday afternoon and he read the warrant to the Court. The clerks say he was not aware of what was wrong with the warrant. Judge Murphy replied that Col. Johnson should study a while.

Fitzgerald, who was present, was asked with the warrant and he said that he was not disputing his legal genius for nothing, but for $2 would tell all he knew about it. Grant and Murphy hold the secret.

UGLY CHARGES MADE.

The Troubles of Rev. Mulholland of Grace Church Multiply.

A suit was filed in the Circuit Court to restrain the various insurance companies from paying the $35,000 insurance on Grace Presbyterian Church, which burned a few months ago.

The suit is brought by Frank H. Anderson and Wm. H. Dickenson, who are members of the church.

The defendants are Henry J. Mulholland, the pastor; John W. Wilson, Charles R. Morris and Charles Means, Trustees, and the several insurance companies which had "laissez faire" on the property.

Plaintiffs allege that the trustees exalted their trust so greatly that they did not legitimately merely remarked that they didn't see why the papers had been bound holding him about evading service of the writer.

One day he was bound to appear before the Board of Education Building. Although he gave it out when he relinquished the $1,000 a year of a deputy sheriff that he was about his business, he was bound to appear before the Board fixing the number of officers in each polling place at two judges and one clerk. In order to increase the number and avoid violation of their original rule, members would have to rescind this rule. This would require at least one month's notice.

That is the reason the method was adopted which was used last Saturday.

I think the opposing attorneys are mistaken in their interpretation of the Court's order relative to the revocation of the original appointments. I do not believe the Court intended to prohibit the selection of twenty-one Republicans from the original forty-two.

"Do not believe, and one will be punished for it," said Mr. Reback himself.

Eddie Brown Invaded Clark Avenue, but Got the Wrong House.

Edward Brown, while drunk, attempted to rescue his sister from Etta Mason's room on Clark Avenue.

He got out on his mission about 8 o'clock Tuesday evening and, swinging his clouded eyesight, he missed the number. Instead of going to Etta Mason's house, he went to the place across the street where Maude Abbey's place was. There he came in contact with the colored cook.

The cook, who was Eddie's sister, had been assaulted with bricks and stones and was confined to her room.

CYRUS COULDN'T BE FOUND.

Major Walbridge Was Wanted as a Witness in the Criminal Court.

Although he is Mayor of the city Mr. Cyrus Packard Walbridge must answer a subpoena of the Criminal Court.

At least Judge Harvey thought so, and yesterday a Deputy Sheriff was sent on the rather unpleasant errand of bringing his Honor to court. The Deputy, however, had difficulty in finding the chief at the City Hall, told him that the Mayor was out.

Judge Harvey wanted Major Walbridge to testify in the case of the State against Henry Bornschien, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. Bornschien represented himself and Major Walbridge's Son, and obtained money by selling several municipal positions to which he had no claim.

The State wanted the Mayor to testify that Bornschien was never his private secretary.

When the case was called at 2 o'clock the Mayor did not respond. Judge Harvey thought the Mayor was no more exempt as a witness than any one else, and ordered the Sheriff to produce Mayor Walbridge in court.

There was immediately a scarcity of deputies in the Four Courts and the Sheriff had to send for others to find such work as would make it impossible for them to leave.

Finally a deputy was found who thought he could produce the Mayor's body in court, and he went to the City Hall armed with a search warrant.

The Mayor had gone to lunch, and no one seemed to know where he would return.

Before the deputy got back to court Bornschien had been tried guilty and had been sentenced to 60 days in the Workhouse.

The chase for the Mayor was abandoned.

FREIGHT ON GOLD.

The Rate Advanced by Leading Steamship Lines.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The American (London) North German Lloyd, White Star and Hamburg-American steamship lines have advanced the freight rates on gold.

Judge Gantt was familiar with all the facts.

Another attorney for the defense, Mr. Joseph P. Ganett, argued that the Mayor could hardly be secured unless each party had an equal number of judges and clerks at each polling place.

He also argued that the Mayor or any other individual.

Another circumstance that caused the attorneys for Democratic candidates to give up the fight was the efficacy of the affidavits that are being secured.

It is the opinion of the attorneys that the board reappointed men whose appointments they had been ordered to revoke.

These views, of course, are not held by Attorney Stark.

"We shall file these affidavits," said Mr. Stark, "and I think we can rely upon them to purge the School Board Directors of contempt. Our contention will be that the appointment of these men as Democrats was not valid, and that they are actually Republicans. This will be supported by the affidavits. The Supreme Court did not order that the Mayor be removed, and he is still Mayor."

Mr. Ganett, however, argued that the Mayor could hardly be secured unless each party had an equal number of judges and clerks at each polling place.

Finally a deputy was found who thought he could produce the Mayor's body in court, and he went to the City Hall armed with a search warrant.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 6.—Dr. Arthur W. Goodspeed of the University of Pennsylvania, who a week ago obtained a picture of his skull by means of the Roentgen ray, has just completed a radiograph of the entire body showing every bone in place. This is the largest portion of the human frame ever taken, and the results are excellent.

A VICTORY FOR FREE SILVER.

The Hopkins Faction Badly Beaten in Chicago.

ALTGELD HAS HIS WAY.

Cook County Committee Decided by a Vote of 74 to 47 on the Silver Primary Plan.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 8.—Altgeld and silver scored a victory at the meeting of the Cook County Democratic Central Committee last night. The silver men were led by Harry Donovan and the sound money men by ex-Alderman Cullerton. Thomas Gahan presided. The fight was over the method of holding the primaries, the gold men favoring the Crawford primary law and the silver men opposing. There was a red-hot fight, many personalities being indulged in. The final vote was 74 to 47 in favor of silver.

The two factions were allowed 15 minutes each to state their case, and Thomas Moran and Judge McConnell were the principal speakers. The Crawford primary law and presented several thousand signatures. What was desired, however, was a convention, and it was agreed that they be conducted fairly and freely, and if that was agreed to the Sound Money League would endorse the plan put by the judges and clerks' election. They must, however, be elected under the Crawford law.

Judge McConnell followed with a fifteen-minute speech, in which he begged that the committee refuse to listen to the men who had addressed them with bags of money and who had threatened to withdraw if the silver men had tried to gain control of the Democratic party in Cook County. He characterized ex-Judge Moon as a mountebank, and the public opinion of the country as to the bribe offered should be accepted.

Harry Donovan, finally, after things had quieted down, proposed a convention, which placed control of the primaries in the hands of the Executive Committee and the sound money men were the ones that defeated the sound money men.

Resolved, by the Central Committee of the Democratic party of Cook County, "That the County Convention be held in the city of Chicago, on May 29, 1896, to elect delegates to the Democratic State Convention to be held at Peoria, Ill., June 1, 1896, and that further Resolved, That the Democratic primary election be held throughout the county on May 29, between the hours of 1 and 7 p.m.

For the purpose of carrying out the election the country towns and each ward in the election will be arranged in such a manner that districts will enable every Democrat to vote without hindrance or delay, and also that the regular Democratic judges and clerks of each district be present at the election.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 8.—The circular concerning McKinley sent out by Stevens is made public here. It contains the names of the various candidates for the office of president and the names of the various candidates for the vice presidency. The second from D. T. Ramsey, also of Columbus O., who says that McKinley gave a position to Captain in preference to an A. P. A. Grand Army man. The third and last is from J. K. Fritner, who declares that the fact that he has been nominated for the vice presidency is due to the fact that the bribe offered should be accepted.

The circular states that the Ohio Central Committee has issued a circular calling for additional affidavits to support the bribe offered to McKinley.

The circular also states that the sound money men were the ones that defeated the sound money men.

Resolved, by the Central Committee of the Democratic party of Cook County, "That the County Convention be held in the city of Chicago, on May 29, 1896, to elect delegates to the Democratic State Convention to be held at Peoria, Ill., June 1, 1896, and that further Resolved, That the Democratic primary election be held throughout the county on May 29, between the hours of 1 and 7 p.m.

KANKAKEE, Ill., May 8.—The Kankakee Democratic Central Committee decided to hold a convention June 9 for nominating candidates for the various offices.

The convention will be held June 9, and the primaries will be held throughout the county on May 29.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 8.—A call has been issued for the annual Grand Divisional Convention for the Central Grand Division of the Third Judicial Circuit, to be held at Peoria on June 23, 1896, to nominate candidates for the Supreme and Appellate Courts.

Illinois Democratic Conventions.

DANVILLE, Ill., May 8.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railway was held in the office of the company in this city to-day. The report of the Board of Directors for the fiscal year ending Dec. 31, 1895, shows that the total earnings were $21,016,000, against $19,567,870 for the previous year. Operating expenses and taxes, $14,568,219; net earnings, $6,447,785. The ratio of increase in gross earnings is 7.45 per cent, in operating expenses 1.01 per cent and in net earnings 10.16 per cent.

The no earnings of the road have been used up to date. Interest on bonded debt, $64,758,381, 10 per cent dividends on guaranteed stock, $53,000, making a total disbursement of net earnings, $112,750,281. The total expenses for the year $4,883,352.76. The net income was $1,141,388.45. The balance on hand was reported to be $281,868.46.

Nominations.

The tenth Michigan District Republican Convention for the nomination of candidates for the office of governor was held for the ex-Alderman Cullerton.

Then a storm arose all over the hall over the merits of both resolutions. The talk, which was carried on for about two hours, and then the Powers substitute resolution was put to vote. It was carried by a large majority in favor of the Powers resolution, and that said two committees carefully scrutinized the list of judges and clerks and see that no important changes were made in the list, so that said list of judges and clerks, as well as primary districts, were published.

Algerian John F. Powers offered a substitute resolution, which placed the primaries under judges composed of three from each faculty, and this was hard fought for by the ex-Alderman Cullerton.

BLAND OR MCKINLEY.

Pacific Coast Republicans Want Both Free Silver and Protection.

J. H. MacLafferty, a prominent Tacoma, Wash., lumberman, is stopping at the Laclede.

If he has sized up the situation correctly Washington stands as a political anomaly among the States.

To a Post-Dispatch reporter Mr. MacLafferty said:

"I think it may seem Washington for McKinley and free silver. Just as set it would seem that McKinley is his first choice."

It is my way: The manufacturers who are in the majority in our State favor a high protective tariff. McKinley represents a tariff idea as no other man could.

Hence I think he will get the Washington vote almost unanimously.

If McKinley does not get the nomination and the Democratic desire for free silver the State will undoubtedly go Democratic.

Washington produces a great deal, however, in a high protective tariff, though

"We are not prepared to pin our faith to any other Republican besides McKinley. In the event though the Democrats adopt a high protective tariff we will undoubtedly vote for the Republican ticket." I am not speaking merely for myself, but for the great manufacturing class of our State with whom political sentiments I am well acquainted.

"I think there is much the same feeling among the people of the Pacific slope as there abouts Mr. Bland ran for President against any man other than McKinley. He would capture the vote of Washington and Oregon, and probably of California and Colorado. As long as McKinley is in the field, though, he will be supported by citizens of the Pacific slope."

THE TREATMENT THAT CURES.
The Now Generally Accepted Truth That the New Copeland Treatment Will Be the Treatment of the Future—No One Doubts It Who Has Noted the Marvelous and Steadily Increasing Record of Cures.

CURED OF DEAFNESS.

BY DOCTOR COPELAND.

John F. Walsh, 4314 San Francisco av., in charge of Water Gas Plant of the Laclede Gas Co.: "My rheumatism grew so severe that I was unable to work. I could hardly get around in the day time and at night when I would sit down at home the pain was worse, and after I went to bed I would be

DR. COPELAND CURING RHEUMATISM.

Miss Alice Norton of Vincennes, Ind., traveled over 300 miles to seek the skill of Dr. Copeland.

Miss Alice Norton, Vincennes, Ind.: "I had a roaring and rumbling in my ears and such a severe earache that I couldn't sleep at night and was in perfect agony. My ears were running with a nauseous discharge, which was unbearable. I heard of the skill of Dr. Copeland in curing so many deaf people through my friend, Mrs. Haley, whose husband, is an eye specialist, living at 4227 Warren avenue, St. Louis.

Dr. B. D. Haley,

"I found that I was growing deaf and that the doctor will say to his patient, 'I can cure you,' or 'I can not cure you.'

"I traveled over 300 miles to see the great doctor and am overjoyed at the result. The pain has all gone, the discharge has stopped, the deafness is all gone. I am perfectly cured. I am now taking treatment with Dr. Haley for my eyes, with excellent results, and when I go back to Vincennes I will tell my many friends what a wonderful cure has been accomplished and will spread the good news of Dr. Copeland's skill far and wide."

It belongs to that future era, when diseases will be no longer an uncertain condition, when the doctor will say to his patient, "I can cure these conditions, I cure them in every instance."

It belongs to an era in which the Therapeutic Nihilist will find no hearers for his empty scoffing over remedial agents he can not understand, in which the tests of results will be the only test upon which reputation may rest, in which there will be no tolerance or charity for the physician who does not cure disease, and in which the Confidence born of Knowledge, just, worthy and without reproach, will be the Mistress of Skill, and Skill alone will conduct all ministrations to the sick.

DR. COPELAND CURING THE DEAF.

Mrs. Maria Osborne, aged 70, 2921 Randolph St.: "I have been deaf over 20 years. I couldn't hear the gongs on the electric cars. I placed myself under the care of Dr. Copeland. Now I can hear the door bell and can hear the sermon in church. I have lived off and on St. Louis since 1842."

JOHN SIMPSON, MOBERLY, MO.: "I am 81 years old and have been hard of hearing for years. I can not hear what was said in the Masonic Lodge nor the sermon at church. I have been taking the New Treatment and am happy to tell that I can hear even the slightest sounds."

AFTER THREE YEARS' DEAFNESS.

HER HEARING RESTORED.

Mrs. George Hayden, Winona, Mo., well-known throughout Shannon County:

"I have been deaf in both ears for over the past year. I could not distinguish the difference between the loud and soft pedaling on the piano and the tones were blurred. I never heard the words of a song and gave up going to church, as I was unfit for work. I could hardly get around in the day time and at night when I would sit down at home the pain was worse, and after I went to bed I would be enough to make it interesting. I attend the Presbyterian Church at Winona. When in general conversation I could not understand what was said, except by catching a word here and there by watching the lips of the speaker. I tried several doctors and at one time about a year ago I went to the Hospital, but

MY DEAFNESS CONSTANTLY INCREASED.

I bought a pair of artificial ear drums, but couldn't hear any better with them. You can't imagine how it hurt to pull them out of my ears on account of the suction on the ear drum.

DR. NORMAN OF WINONA,

Our family physician, advised me to try Dr.

Copeland, because I came to St. Louis and he recommended that I go to Dr. Copeland.

I began to hear better soon after commencing the treatment, and now I can hear every little noise. I can hear the buzzing of a beetle in the room or the turning of the key in the lock.

"In fact, the streets are so noisy that I have to put cotton in my ears so that I can go to sleep. We have spent over $200 on my ears, but none of it did me any good until I came to Dr. Copeland. I stopped in at a music store on Olive street yesterday and

TESTED MY EARS WITH THE PIANO

and I can distinguish every tone perfectly.

I attended the matinee a few days ago and heard all that was said without any effort.

It is a wonderful treatment.

For I believe that if dead people could realize what has been done for me that thousands of doubling ones would place themselves in Dr. Copeland's care.

DISCOURSES ON PERSONAL PROPERTY.

M'FARLAND HAS BEEN SUSPENDED.

The Browns' Crack Backstop Sent to the Bench.

HAVE FAITH IN DIDDLEBOCK.

Dr. Forster and Claude Martin Will Guarantee That He Will Make the Team a Winner.

Contrary to all expectations there was no disturbance at Sportsman's Park Tuesday night.

When the Browns lost their second game at the Philadelphia club, prophets of ill omens were numerous. They declared that Col. Von der Ahe would forthwith decapitate Maj. Diddlebock.

Mr. Von der Ahe has done nothing of the sort. Diddlebock was very much in evidence at Sportsman's Park Wednesday morning, when, with the able assistance of Von der Ahe, he gave the team an all-round shaking up.

When Von der Ahe pushed his way into the players' dressing room as they were preparing for morning practice every one of them felt that something was going to drop.

The magnate made a speech of characteristic address which has made him famous ever since which goes down in history as comparable to such oratorical masterpieces as Demosthenes' philippic over the Athenian agitators and Chaucer's "Les Miller's" typewritten contributions to the Crawford Mirror.

Chris gave them the old gag about unity and strength together we stand, divided we ain't in it," etc. His peroration was magnificent and touching, the players said.

What they do there may be seen.

When Von der Ahe was placed upon the bench because he refused to go in and catch yesterday's game, the first game commenced Diddlebock told McFarland to put on the protector and mask. The little catcher refused, saying that he was "your sick," asked the manager.

"No," answered McFarland, "but I am tired catching every game."

"All right, Diddlebock, you can take a rest without pay. Douglas, go in and catch."

McFarland appealed to Von der Ahe, but Chris and Diddlebock, so the star catcher is taking a rest.

It is not probable that it will last very long, however, as the manager and the rest of McFarland and will probably recall his suspension before Sunday.

They say that the brilliant catcher has too much confidence of himself and that a trip to the bench will reduce the swelling in his head. Meanwhile Douglas will do the backtracking.

Imperial by their love of the nation game, Dr. Otto E. Forster, the Police Commissioner, and Claude Martin, the Brown general manager have come to St. Louis to make a proposal. These men have the utmost confidence and ability of Mr. Diddlebock as manager and the Brown team will remain to win the pennant.

The think that, unhampered by the "knockers" and mischief makers Von der Ahe will show him that Diddlebock would prove a winner.

Consequently they have asked Mr. Von der Ahe to return to the team, and he has agreed to do so.

It is not probable that it will make at least as good last year and will be given a chance.

Ad Mr. Martin are generally social and company can get $10,000.

Both are willing to let the St. Louis team in the St. Louis team in the team that it can be done if it will only give Diddlebock a mile the offer has not been formalized to Mr. Von der Ahe, it is probable he will be presented to day.

There is a rumor current Tuesday to the effect that Walter Arlington Latham of succeeded Diddlebock as manager of Browns.

A Post-Dispatch reporter circulated a question and asked their opinion of the proposed change.

Latham is a mighty unpopular man on the St. Louis team.

The Post-Dispatch representative talked to seven different players on the subject. They all asserted that it would be a most undesirable change.

"Latham manager," said one. "I like that. Then Arlie would fire Monte Cross and Devers to the bench and he and Niland would be the ones to do it."

"I don't like that, I don't think. So Bill Dowd, Connor, Cooley and Quinn."

"I don't like that when I say that half of the team would be for their changes if Latham were made captain."

The boys think that he has carried his point, but you know, he is supposed to be captain on the lines while Cross is captain on the bench. When Monte gives an order Latham gives bust and manly, just entering upon her pernicious career, placed a pipe stick between his lips and started to smoke his life away. It had been a hard life, and it had undeniably undermined his reason, until within a short time ago, he died, a raving maniac.

His sister, Minnie, crept before he died, and, as she crept, she uttered words that even with the terrible object lesson found at the deathbed of her maniac brother, she could not understand. She had been smoking on until five hours a day failed to keep her quiet, and as she lay dying, piteously she cried for just "One More Cigarette." She died, and, though she was dead, cigarettes enslaved her, reduced her to a mere skeleton, and dethroned her reason.

A collection of $3.40 was taken up for a ticket to the regatta, and the amount was sent to Union Station with the stranded men occupied the night.

He claims to have arrived from New York City at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon on his way to visit relatives at Cherryville, Kan.

About 8 o'clock p.m. he meandered into a committee meeting of the College of St. Louis, and was seated at a table in the rear, under the impression, he says, that it was a meeting of the Scotch-Irish Society.

Bresler told the gentlemen assembled that his name was Bresler; that he was a horse-breeder from the North of Ireland, and that he was on his way to Cherryville with a view of opening a stable there.

Mr. Gallagher was a great friend of Gratot Cabanne, brother of Duke Cabanne, and equally celebrated in local circles for his athletic prowess.

He is strong as a bull and spends much time in boxing and running, and cycling, thus keeping himself as hard as possible.

Cabanne and Miller had been out riding on a tandem when and wound up late in the night at St. Louis. Both Cabanne and Miller decided to remain all night. The young men occupied the same bed.

About 5 o'clock this morning Miller was awoken by a terrible choking sensation.

He had been dreaming that he was being hanged. Partially paralyzed by fright and lack of breath, he opened his mouth to shout, but could not do so.

For a moment he did not know what was the matter and then discovered that his companion had been strangled.

He had been sleeping on the floor of a room in the basement of the Kenwood Hotel, which is the largest hotel in the city.

A few minutes later he was standing on the corner of Eighteenth and Market streets, shaking hands with himself at the same time that he saw Mr. Bresler of Ireland emerging from a ticket broker's office across the street.

Miller struggled with all his strength, but not a sound could he utter nor could he free himself from his bonds.

In his desperation he reached across his body with his right hand and dug his nail into the face of a sleeping companion.

The man, who was a steward, did not wake in this respect until daylight.

In his possession were found letters addressed to him from Mr. Bresler.

To the police, which he had been unable to read, he said that he was a horse-breeder from the North of Ireland.

Whether Mr. Bresler of Ireland will "bump out" of his difficulty all right is a question, but it is evident that a war is on, and that he will be charged with the killing.

Perry, who is a feigned drunkard, refused to give his name, but he did not want in this respect until daylight.
